

RESUME

Henry Deloss Galt, Ph.D.
Certified Range Management Consultant
Society for Range Management

EDUCATION

B.S. Range and Forestry, Texas A & M University, 1951
M.S. Range Management, University of Arizona, 1966
Ph.D. Range Management, minor Animal Nutrition, University of Arizona, 1972

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Self employed as Range Management Consultant since 1992. I have worked as a Range Consultant on a number of projects since 1992. These consultations are explained under the Consultant Report section.

Retired from Soil Conservation Service (now Natural Resource Conservation Service) in 1990. Employed primarily as Range Conservationist for 30 years. Last position held was Regional Range Conservationist, West Technical Center, Portland, Oregon. My position covered the eleven western states including Alaska and Hawaii, 1982-1990.

Range Conservationist/Dryland Agronomist, Agency for International Development, Tunis, Tunisia, Africa, 1978-1981.

State Range Conservationist, SCS, Bismarck, ND 1972-1978.

CONSULTING REPORTS

Forty year trend in range condition in Southwestern New Mexico. McCormick, Galt and Holechek, 1998, 1999, 2000.

Grazing capacity and range condition on the Montana allotment, Chilton Ranch, Arivaca, AZ. Galt and Holechek, February 2000.

Grazing capacity and management plan for the Fitzgerald Ranch, Chama, NM. Galt and Holechek, 2000.

Grazing intensity on the York Ranch, Grants, NM. Galt and Holechek, 2000.

Monitoring range seeding effectiveness on the Telephone Canyon wildfire on the Mescalero Apache Reservation, Mescalero, NM. Galt and Holechek, 1999-2000.